Hi everyone,
I have spinach, lettuce as well as perennial onion to share. I grew to much

Let me know if you would like some of my bounty.

I forgot I also have a bunch of fresh oregano.

If you still have anything left, I would love some. I just planted tomatoes yesterday and will do carrots and other veggies today! I would never have thought I'd get this excited about getting out of church early and running home to garden. Lol

Thank you!
Nia

Hey Vonda, I will have some of that vegetables too. Just mix it up with some cooked pasta and tomatoe sauce and bring it over with a six pack of Bass. OK

I would love some...if it's not all gone.
Would you like me to pick it up? Where?

Mia & Vonda-you are my inspiration!
I think I'll work on my yard tomorrow...

Thanks,
Yomara

Y

I am a human delivery service. I will call before I arrive, if you are not there it will be on your porch. I just picked some of the cherry tomatoes but I am delivering them to my sister. Next week you will have yours. By then my brandywines should be ripe.

Do you eat green tomatoes? I grow those too.

Hey Vonda!

We would like to get "walking onions" from you. We live on 665 Grady Place give onions directions to our place:lol:

Darek,

I sent them to your house but they came back. Said something about Sonic licking their legs too much. :woohoo:

Sonic told us that he can't hear his tongue after brouhaha with "walking onions". I guess we have call vet asap.

Ps.

Vonda never plant those genetically modified onions again. Sonic looks kinda strange now :unsure:

Ok, the garlic is gone. But the beets and the onions will be ready in about two weeks.

---

next on the list is:
tomatoes, kohlrabi and eggplant. (the kohlrabi is for Ewelina, you will have to ask her for some) my cabbage and spinach must have died. It dont see them.

Check out my beet crop. I also thought I did not have anymore garlic but I found about but 20 bulbs. I am so happy.
Nia, Jerilyn says you can not have any of the garlic. <http://atlantawestend.com/myjoomla/images/fbfiles/images/beets.jpg>
