President's Report:

Neighbor introductions.

Placemakers Grant - Ayana Clarke, West End received the grant from the City. We will update the neighborhood with next steps after the 1st of the year. Repurposing under-utilized spaces.

Youth Workforce Grant - We also got a grant for youth with Looking for 15 youth, 10 nominated thru the schools, and 5 thru the neighborhood. 8th grade thru Highschool. Grant is written for training and internships for youth called WEND you work.

State of the union Address:

Very Busy and successful year.

We've have had a successful 2018.

We have new bylaws;

We've been awarded $60,000 in grants;

We started an education scholarship for Washington high school;

We provided school supplies for M. Agnes Jones Elementary;

We've had very successful events where we brought in over 1000 people who wouldn't normally come to our neighborhood;

We've made and continued partnerships with our bank, local businesses, and community organizations to support our events; and

Most importantly we welcomed a number of new neighbors to our great community.

Thank you for all the Board and Committee Chairs, and volunteers.

Financial position, Sherria Saafir, Treasurer

Beginning balance $35,039.74

Ending balance $32,074.36
